How many calories in sonic tater tots with cheese

Image - Sonic Drive-In Tater tots are an American side dish or snack that consists of deep fried, grated potatoes. They're also a lunch room staple consumed by school kids of all ages. Sonic Drive-In, the fast-food place best known for serving your meals on wheels, is also an advocate of tater tots. In fact, Sonic makes some of the best tater tots in the country. The company also sells more tater tots than every other fast-food chain, which means they're delicious. To be honest, they're the best version of the tater tot out there. Sonic's Tater Tots contain between 250 and 960 calories per serving, depending on the kind of tots and size you order. Sonic tots can be found in several varieties such as regular Tots, Cheese Tots, and Chili Cheese Tots. You can see the full nutritional breakdown of all these different tots below. Think about it: how many times have you truly felt satisfied after hurriedly eating a bowl of cornflakes? Probably not many. The thing is it's not exactly easy or convenient to cook up a full diner-style breakfast each morning. It's 2018, you have things to do! Sonic understands that. Thanks to America's Drive-In, you have the opportunity to start 2019 off on the right foot in the form of a fork-load of eggs. Sonic is debuting four new Breakfast Bowls just in time for the new year.Cheewoom reports fast food chain Sonic plans to expand its breakfast menu. Namely, it plans to add new Breakfast Bowls at participating locations. But, what is a breakfast bowl? It's a pretty novel idea, actually. A breakfast bowl takes all the yummy parts of breakfast and puts them together in a bowl. Then, you can get little bits of each ingredient in each spoonful. It's like a breakfast-version of the beloved burrito bowl. Instead of caritas you have bacon and instead of rice you have eggs. It's the same, but different.Sonic's new Breakfast Bowls come in four varieties: the Crispy Bacon Breakfast Bowl, the Crispy Bacon and Tots Breakfast Bowl, The Savory Sausage Breakfast Bowl, and the Savory Sausage and Tots Breakfast Bowl.The Crispy Bacon Breakfast Bowl is loaded with bacon, eggs, cheese, grilled onions and diced tomatoes.The Crispy Bacon and Tots Breakfast Bowl also comes with bacon, eggs, cheese, grilled onions, and diced tomatoes. But, crispy, golden tater tots are added to the mix. The sausage-based bowls are similar. They, too, come loaded with eggs, cheese, grilled onions, and diced tomatoes. But, predictably, they swap out bacon for sausage. Sausage bowls are available with or without tater tots.The culinary team at Sonic is clearly logged into the idea that the best meals come in bowls. Chewboom has also reported the drive-in chain has released Hearty Chili Bowls, sure to warm even the most frigid of stomachs. The classic Hearty Chili Bowl comes overflowing with chunks of beef and a full serving of vegetables, bold seasonings, and served piping hot.For an extra treat, you can snag a Loaded Hearty Chili Bowl. It comes with everything you know and love about the classic bowl, and is topped with Fritos corn chips, shredded cheese and diced onions. Best news of all? The Hearty Chili Bowl can be found at participating Sonic locations now for a suggested price of $2.49, while the Loaded Chili Bowl carries a suggested price of $2.99. Eating something warm, flavorful, and spicy on a cold, wet, winter afternoon is priceless. But, at Sonic, it will cost you less than three dollars.Sonic is based out of Texas, but has locations in almost every state in the continental U.S. If you're hankering to get your hands on some of these new savory treats, take a look at the store locator. Whatever your goals for 2019 are, it'll be better with the addition of a complete, protein-packed breakfast — preferably topped with tots! Few foods have the power to turn grown adults into giddy children quite like tater tots do. I've heard mothers giggle with glee when they see them on a menu. I've witnessed successful chefs speak fondly of their nostalgic properties. I've even seen established Men's Health editors whoop "tots!" when our company cafeteria serves the sacred potato parcels. When you reheat bagged, frozen tater tots at home, it's never the same experience. The texture doesn't come out right. They always taste a little like freezer burn and plastic. They don't deliver the same happiness. So make your own damn tots. Luke Knox, executive chef of Burritt Room + Tavern in San Francisco, CA, provides the easy recipe. Beyond a night in the freezer, the tots will take you about 10 minutes to toss together. All you need is a bowl and a box grater. Plus, the recipe includes cheese! Make a batch. Serve them with ketchup or Sriracha mayo. Instill giddiness. Cheesy TotsRecipe by Luke Knox, executive chef of Burritt Room + Tavern in San Francisco, CA What you'll need:3 cups shredded* Russet potatoes (about 2 to 3 medium potatoes)¼ cup flour1 egg1 cup grated cheese (your choice)½ Tbsp salt1 tsp ground cayenne pepper1 tsp paprika1 tsp freshly ground black pepper How to make it:1. Place the shredded potatoes on a clean cloth and wring out the water in the potatoes.2. In a large bowl, combine the potatoes with the remaining ingredients. Form the mixture into tater tots. Place the tots on a baking sheet and freeze them overnight.3. Fry the tater tots in canola oil at 320°F until browned, about 5 minutes, or lightly coat them in oil and bake in a 425°F oven until browned, about 15 minutes. Makes 4 servings. *Make sure you use the largest holes on the box grater. The tiny ones produce hard-packed tater tots instead of fluffy ones.
